JMRL's Bookmobile Expanding Services to Louisa and Nelson Counties

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA – Starting this month, JMRL's Bookmobile will be making regular stops at several locations in Louisa and Nelson counties.

"It's incredibly important for people to get access to library services," Library Director David Plunkett said. "The Bookmobile is a perfect way for the library to meet families where they are."

JMRL's Bookmobile operates as a full library branch. Bookmobile patrons can:

- Sign up for a library card.
- Browse 1,500-2,000 items on board.
- Place holds online and pick them up at a designated Bookmobile stop.
- Request materials on particular subjects.
- Check out materials for one month, and renew for an additional month.
- Return Bookmobile materials to any JMRL location or book drop.
